Step #1:

Create a Grammar

Snowflake's Grammar Designer

File Action

Grammar | Input | Parse Tree | Output | Generated Parser | Generated Visitor | License

```
%root phrase;

phrase = greeting_phrase / parting_phrase;

greeting_phrase = WS , "Hello" , WS , planet , WS;

parting_phrase = WS , "Goodbye" , WS , planet;

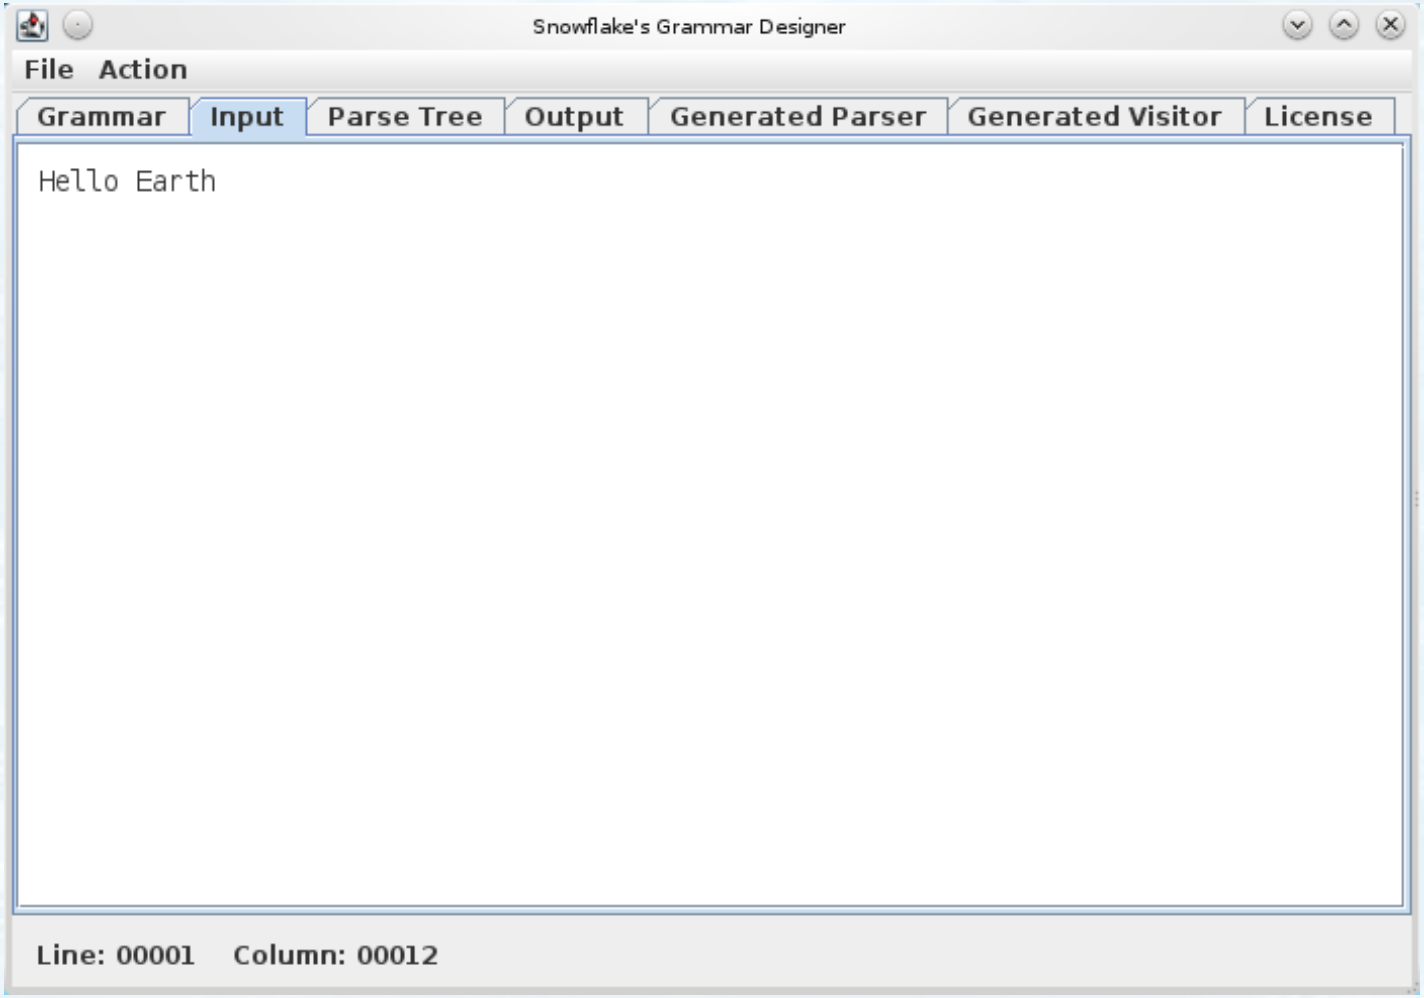
planet = "Mercury" / "Venus" / "Earth" / "Mars";

Whitespace: Zero-Or-More Tabs, Spaces, Carriage-Returns and/or Line-Feeds
WS = [9C 10C 13C 32C] *;
```

Line: 00011 Column: 00039

Step #2:

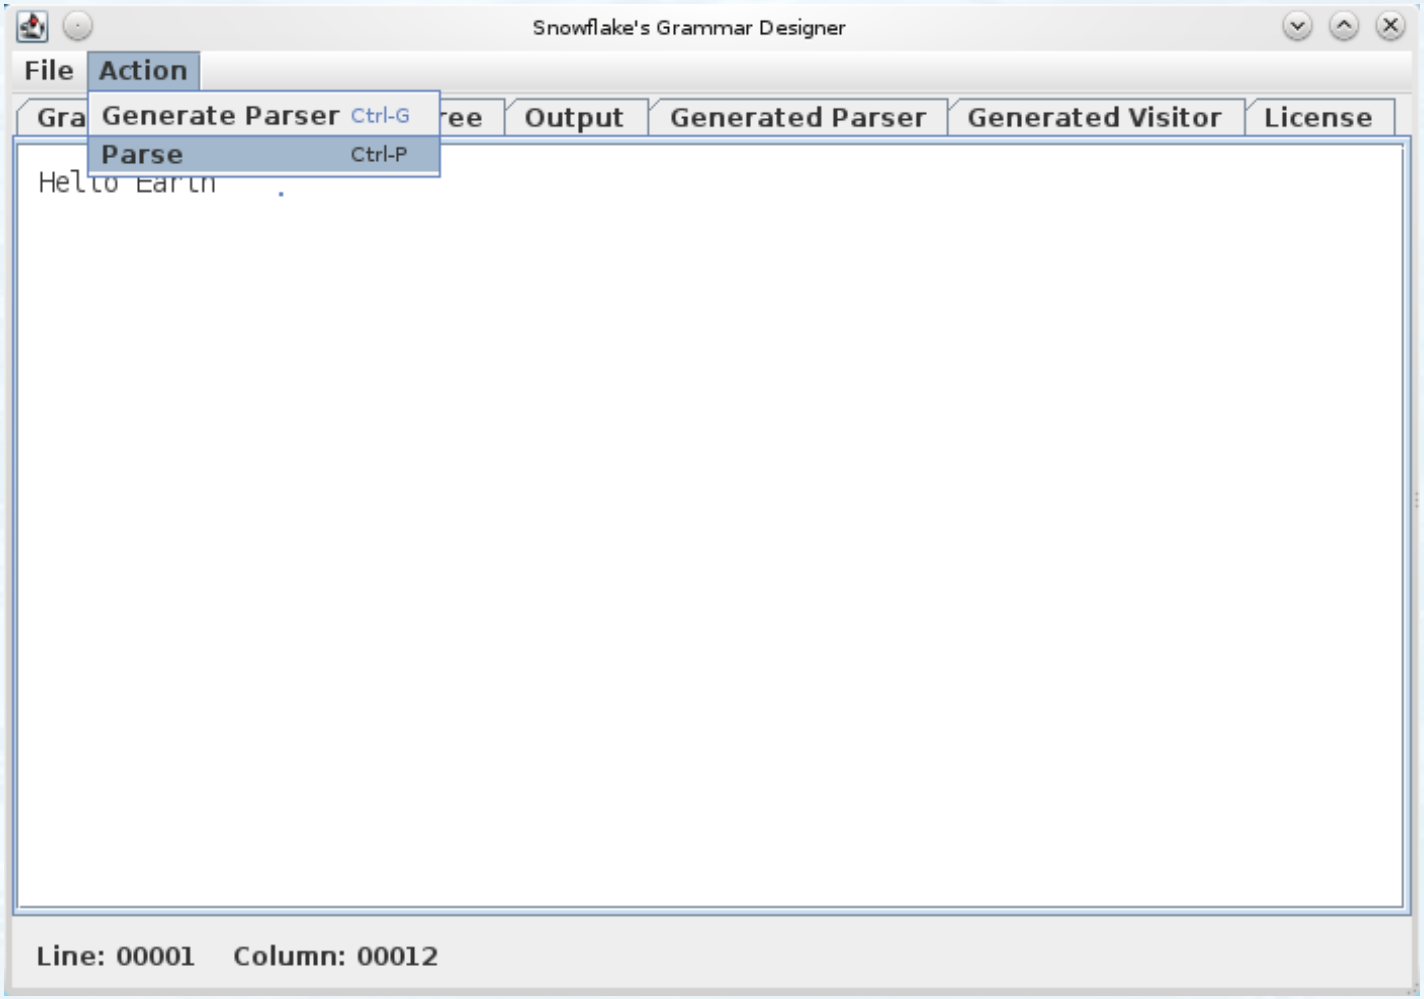
Enter Some Input to Parse



Snowflake's Grammar Designer
File
Action
Grammar
Input
Parse Tree
Output
Generated Parser
Generated Visitor
License
Hello Earth
Line: 00001
Column: 00012

Step #3:

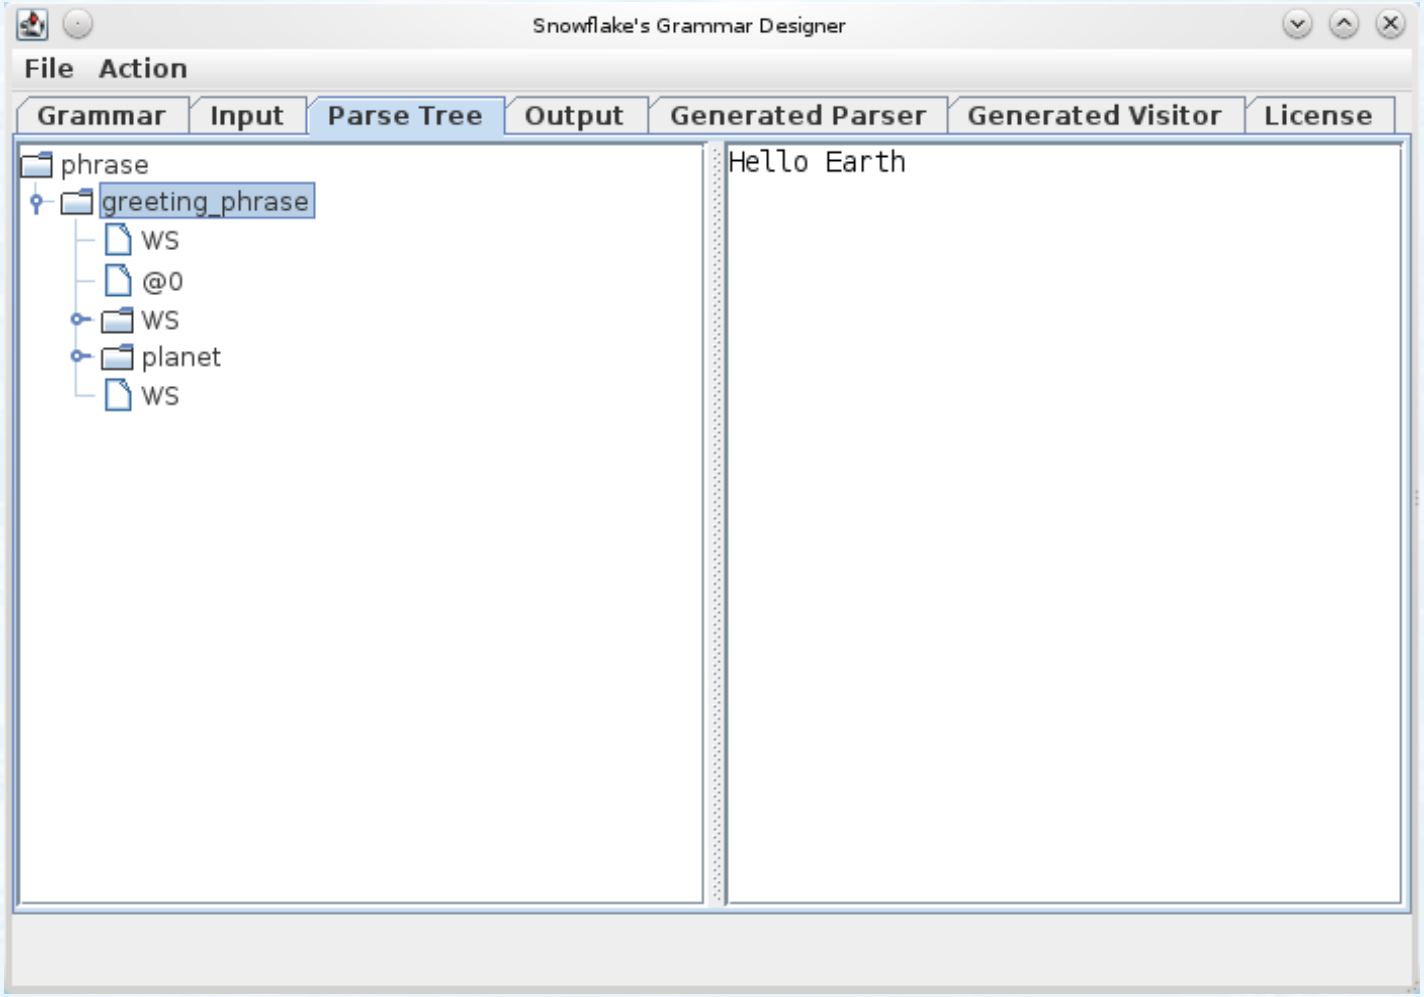
Click Action → Parse on the Main Menu



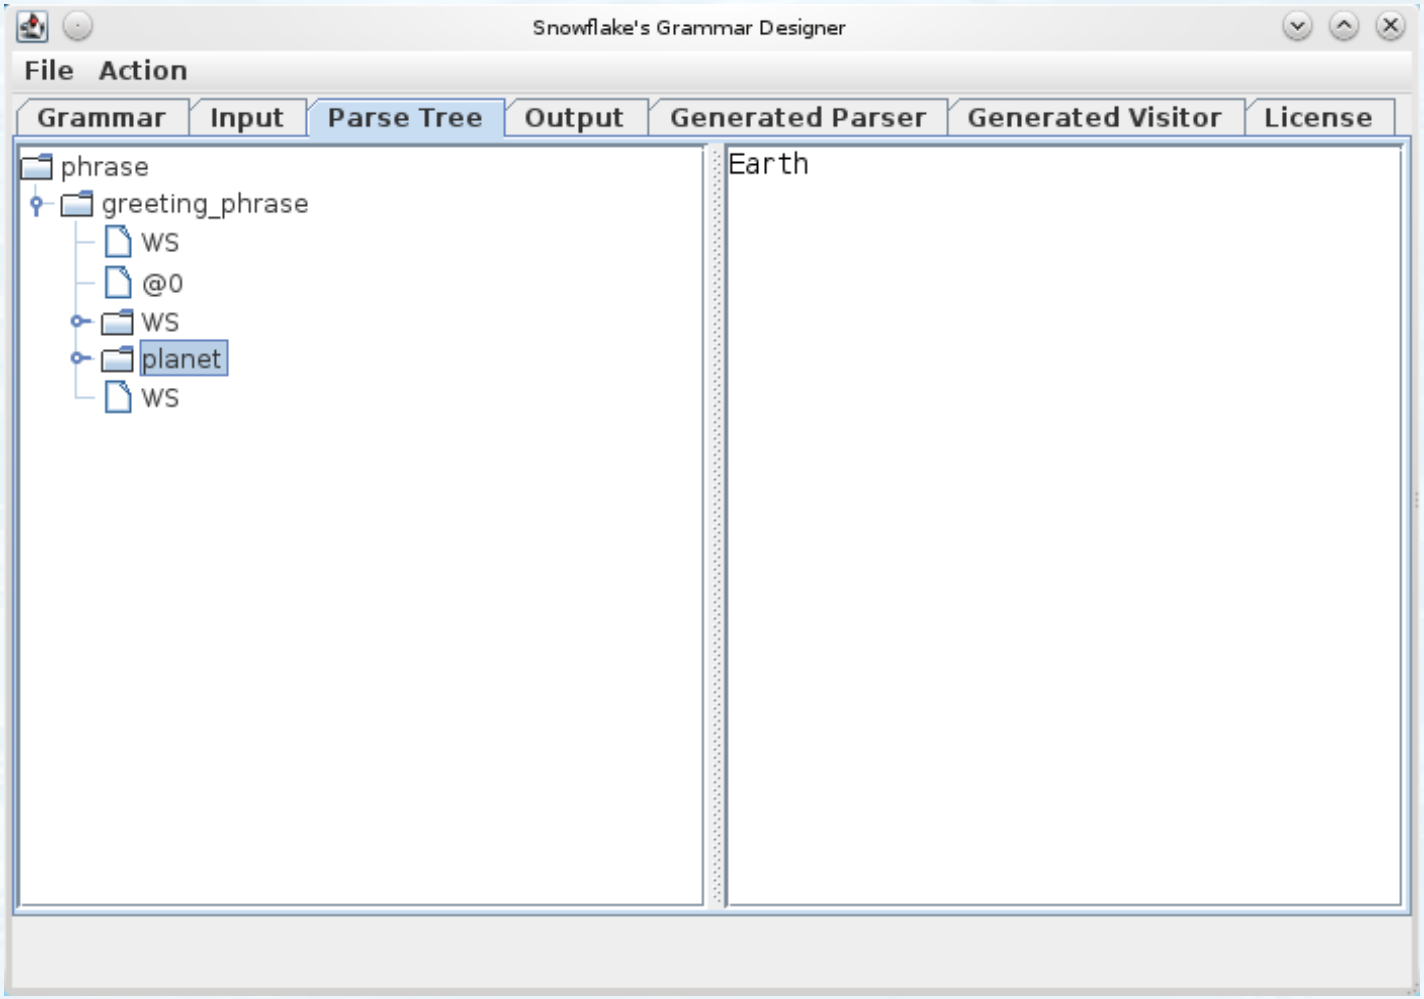
Snowflake's Grammar Designer
File
Action
Generate Parser Ctrl-G
Parse Ctrl-P
Gra
ree
Output
Generated Parser
Generated Visitor
License
Hello Earth
Line: 00001
Column: 00012

Step #4:

View the Parse-Tree



Snowflake's Grammar Designer
File
Action
Grammar
Input
Parse Tree
Output
Generated Parser
Generated Visitor
License
phrase
greeting_phrase
WS
@0
WS
planet
WS
Hello Earth



Snowflake's Grammar Designer
File
Action
Grammar
Input
Parse Tree
Output
Generated Parser
Generated Visitor
License
phrase
greeting_phrase
WS
@0
WS
planet
WS
Earth

The End!